How Dewey find the books?
The Dewey Decimal System is a way to keep items in order by subject. It helps you find what you are looking for! In this system, books are numbered, from 000 to 999, and every topic has a number. The more specific the topic, the more specific the number. For example, you can find nonfiction books about frogs in the 597.89s.

Free films at the Central Library in April! Free parking, too!

Dear Readers,

We're having a birthday party this month!

(The Central Library opened at 14 W. 10th Street on April 12, 2004. The building used to be a bank, but we made it into a cool library!

Our party will have treats, crafts, a scavenger hunt with prizes, dancing, and music by a local band. The building will open at 3 p.m. on April 12, 2004. The party will be from 5 - 7 p.m. in that order. If you can't come to the party, I'm going to make a little film that you can watch it. So make sure it. It's the first film I can watch online. We'll have a special circle that is 0.5 times the size of the circle. So make sure it. It's the first film I can watch online. We'll have a special circle that is 0.5 times the size of the circle. Party time: 5:30 p.m. on Friday, April 19.

It's a dirty job, but somebody's gotta do it!

Earthworm: Dirty Work

By David Harrison

Earthworm squiggles, earthworm squirms, earthworm dines on dirt and germs.

Earthworm dodges, earthworm weaves, earthworm nibbles dead wet leaves.

Earthworm crawls, earthworm creeps, earthworm tunnels, rarely sleeps.

Thank you, bugs!

"Insects clean up after humans, too! A study done in New York showed that pavement ants clean up more discarded people food than rats! ... Without bugs, we'd be up to our waists in rotten food, fallen trees, dead insects and dung. So the next time you see a bug, say thank you."
